"If we don't, who will?"
—Fabio Sachs encouraging his men

The Fabio Sachs' expeditions were a series of journeys made by the explorer named Fabio, to different parts of the Continent and beyond. What resulted in the discovery of the Western Continent.

On this expeditions he was accompanied by many people. The most relevant one will be exposed here. In total, there were 4 expeditions.

- Expedition to the Far East ( 1282 - 1284 )
- Expedition to the Far North ( 1286 - 1288 )
- Discovery of the Western Continent ( 1300 )
- Sea journey through The Continent ( 1306 )

All expeditions were made for commercial purposes. With the exception of the one carried out in 1306. Which was financed by Fabio himself, after the fortune he had obtained from the previous ones.
